Shipmate Paul Filiak provided the below. It is very much appreciated:

Paul Vernon Pyle from Ohio. Assigned to USS 634 Gold in 1980 to take her out of the shipyard and build Squadron 18 in Kings Bay GA. He was in Engineering Dept through 1984, departed as MM1(SS) and then relocated to Pittsburgh PA where he worked for Westinghouse Electric in various leadership and manager roles for over 35 years. Paul retired from Westinghouse in FEB 2018 and died suddenly from a severe heart attack.

Sailor, Rest your oar.
